

"US-China Dialogue on Space Security"

January 30, 2013 – Four Seasons Hotel, Beijing

AGENDA

- 9:00 Session 1: Space Security
What is space security? How important is it? Why? What are US and Chinese perceptions of how much space security matters? What are US and Chinese perceptions on the current space security environment? Do the United States and China agree on what the main space threats and risks are? What are US and Chinese priorities in addressing space security?
- US presenter: James Clay Moltz
Chinese presenter: Li Hong
- 10:30 Coffee Break
- 10:45 Session 2: Space Codes of Conduct and Arms Control
What is the best way to enhance space security? Are codes of conduct better suited than formal arms control processes? What are the US and Chinese positions on these questions? What are the similarities and differences? What can the United States and China do together to strengthen space security?
- US presenter: Bruce MacDonald
Chinese presenter: Teng Jianqun
- 12:15 Closing Comments
- 12:30 Lunch